Announcements and Prelude

Call to Worship – from Hebrews 2:6-9

There is a place where someone has testified:
“What is man that you are mindful of him,
the son of man that you care for him?
You made him a little lower than the angels;
you crowned him with glory and honor
and put everything under his feet.”

We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels,
now crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death,
so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

Responsive Reading – from Hebrews 2:11-18

Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers. He says,

“I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the presence of the congregation I will sing your praises.”

Since the children have flesh and blood, Jesus too shared in their humanity, so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death – that is, the devil – and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

For this reason Jesus had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Jesus Brings Us Victory Over Death:
The Condition, The Promise, The Assurance

*“Amen Amen I say to you, if anyone my word keeps,
death not ever will he behold unto the age.”*
John 8:51, Literal Greek

The Bible says that death is the last _____ to be destroyed
Jesus has the power to bring us _____ even over death

Today’s sermon discusses how the victory that Jesus offers us has a Condition, a Promise and an Assurance. How can each of these help you take deeper hold of the victory that Jesus offers you?

The Condition: “... if anyone keeps my word ...”

The Promise: “... he will not ever behold death unto the age.”

The Assurance: “Amen Amen I say to you ...”

ἀμὴν ἀμὴν λέγω ὑμῖν,
Amen Amen I say to you,
ἐάν τις τὸν ἐμὸν λόγον τηρήσῃ,
if anyone my word keeps,
θάνατον οὐ μὴ θεωρήσῃ
death not ever will he behold
εἰς τὸν αἰῶνα.
unto the age.
