

May 6, 2020

Dear Friends,

As you may know, tomorrow, Thursday, May 7, is the 2020 National Day of Prayer. This event has been held annually since 1952 on the first Thursday in May.

Will Graham, grandson of Billy Graham, will co-host the national event, which will be broadcast, streamed and posted on Facebook Live, television and radio, 8-10 pm.

This year's theme, Pray God's Glory Across the Earth, is based on the Bible verse, "For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea" (Habakkuk 2:14).

In addition, I invite all of us to take time to pray for our nation at 12:00 noon tomorrow, wherever we may be.

As we pray for our country in the midst of the pandemic, keeping this theme and verse in mind, let us ask our Lord Jesus to use even these difficult and challenging days to fill the whole earth with the knowledge of His glory.

Let us pray boldly that even through this extraordinary time, many will come to "see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God" (2 Cor. 4:4), finding their peace and healing and salvation in Him.

Blessings in Christ,
Pastor Paul & Janet
